Old Town San Diego Concession Opportunity

California State Parks Seeks Request for Concession Proposals

SAN DIEGO -- The Department of Parks and Recreation is requesting proposals for a ten year concession contract for the operation of a food service and retail merchandise concession in Old Town San Diego State Historic Park.

Annual sales are projected to exceed $1,000,000, according to State Park officials.

Old Town San Diego State Historic Park (OTSDSHP) is located three miles north of downtown San Diego. Included in the park are several original adobe structures of the Mexican or Republic period, various authentically restored buildings of the American period, and a collection of other historic and contemporary structures.

In addition, the park provides a variety of cultural and interpretive offerings including, house museums, exhibits, and historical displays as well as an assortment of restaurants and retail businesses operating as concessions.
